

Stokes County Beekeepers Association
Honey Extractor Rental Agreement

The following are the Terms of Use for the rental of the Enduro Honey Extractor belonging to and rented at the discretion of the Stokes County Beekeepers Association (SCBA):

The Renter must be an active member of the SCBA. A list of active members will be provided to the North Carolina Cooperative Extension Office in Stokes County and kept current by the SCBA Treasurer. This list must be referenced before any party releases the extractor for rental.

The Renter assumes full financial liability for any damages or loss in value caused to the extractor and also indemnifies the SCBA from any property damage or physical harm incurred by the transportation or use of the honey extractor.

The Renter will refer to the User Manual link provided on the SCBA web site for proper use of the extractor and will ask any relevant questions prior to use.

The Renter will check out, appropriately use, and return the following components of the honey extractor and its appurtenances:

- Assembled Enduro Honey Extractor
- Tie-down straps provided
- Food-grade lubricant provided

The Renter will return the honey extractor clean and in the same condition in which it was prior to the rental. The Renter will use only hot water to clean the extractor and will not apply any detergents whatsoever nor scrub the extractor with any excessively abrasive tools.

The maximum rental period for the honey extractor is 3 days.

The Renter must provide the following information as well as before and after photos documenting the condition of the extractor:
